

Nodier and insects

Publication type: Journal article

Journal: Cahiers d'études nodiéristes

Author: Montandon (Alain)

Abstract: Nodier, who developed an interest in entomology from an early age, quickly established a link between insects and literature, and their marvelous world features in his stories. The collector's spirit, far from harming poetry, opens up a vast field for a poetic art innervated by the force of life.
