

Translation and the economic market

Publication type: Journal article

Journal: Cahiers Valery Larbaud
2021, n° 57. Larbaud et l'économie

Author: Viellard (Delphine)

Abstract: Valery Larbaud is the first French translator to consider translation an economic product, obeying the laws of the market and competition. He makes it acquire value by itself as a transformed product, but also gives values to the original text and, beyond that, its language, by making a national work an international work.
