

La prière de l'amour

Traduire les deux sens de kohu, « prier » et « aimer », dans un poème du Man'yôshû

Publication type: Journal article

Journal: Des mots aux actes
2017, n° 6. Traduire le sacré

Author: Brock (Julie)

Abstract: The starting point of the article is the word yûtatami, a piece of folded fabric given as a divine offering. In poetry, this word is a “pillow word,” used most often with Tamuke-yama. Tamuke-yama indicates a division between the cultivated and non-cultivated world, and yûtatami is a mediation between sacred and profane domains. The link between spirituality and love in Man'yôshû is one of the challenges of translation.
