

Des bancs de l'université au service de l'État et de l'Église

Formations et carrières des élites urbaines chypriotes (1192-1570)

Publication type: Article from a collective work

Collective work: Élites chrétiennes et formes du pouvoir en Méditerranée centrale et orientale \(XIII^e-XV^e siècle\)

Author: Trélat (Philippe)

Abstract: This contribution sheds light on changes in the recruitment of academics to join the Lusignan State apparatus and the Cypriot Latin Catholic Church. Examining the education of island elites shows the preponderant role of academics who passed through Bologna, Montpellier, Paris, Toulouse and Padua after 1393. Obtaining a degree, which guaranteed a career in the Cypriot government, allowed family lines of indigenous origin to be integrated into the elite.

Pages: 31 to 56

Collection: Encounters, n° 318

Series: Medieval civilization, n° 28

CLIL theme: 4027 -- SCIENCES HUMAINES ET SOCIALES, LETTRES -- Lettres et Sciences du langage -- Lettres -- Etudes littéraires générales et thématiques

EAN: 9782406064589

ISBN: 978-2-406-06458-9

ISSN: 2261-1851

DOI: 10.15122/isbn.978-2-406-06458-9.p.0031

Publisher: Classiques Garnier

Online publication: 09-14-2017

Language: French

Display online