Abstract: The article refers to Bernard Stiegler's book, Qu'appelle-t-on panser ? It is by no means a summary of chapter four entitled « L'âge du capitalocène comme accélération de l'exosommatisation ». Our intention is to put an exhibit on file to see how the Capitalocene issue is addressed. The text is based on a montage of excerpts to which we have added a few comments. It is thus possible to understand the Stieglerian position in relation to Moore's position on the Capitalocene.
