

Renan and Noémi

Publication type: Journal article

Journal: Études renaniennes Littérature - Philosophie - Histoire des Religions 2022, n° 122. Lectures de Rosmapamon

Author: Le Bellec (Henri)

Abstract: If Renan was monopolized throughout his life by his work and his research, he never ceased to worry about his family, in particular his daughter Noémi. Hostile to education in boarding school, he will closely follow her intellectual and moral formation, anxious to give her a solid education which will make her an accomplished woman. Noémi will never disappoint her father. True to her image, she will always be driven by a deep sense of duty to be fulfilled in all circumstances. Like father. Such girl.
