

Justice et puissance de juger chez Montesquieu

Une étude contextualiste

Publication type: Book

Author: Hanisch (Till)

Preface writer: Larrère (Catherine)

Abstract: This work analyses the idea of justice in Montesquieu's œuvre and provides a new interpretation of the power of judging. It shows that in the work of Montesquieu, the conditions of freedom and justice always exceed the national framework and are created in interaction with other peoples and societies.
