

L'Abrégé du monde

Une histoire sociale de la bibliothèque Ambrosienne (v. 1590 - v. 1660)

Publication type: Book

Author: Lezowski (Marie)

Abstract: In 1609, the inauguration of the Ambrosiana library had a European-wide impact : its founder, Federico Borromeo, intended to create a place dedicated to scholarly invention as much as preservation of knowledge. This book relates half a century in the history of the scholars of the library, divided between involvement in the world and refuge in reading, in a capital of the Catholic Reformation.

Number of pages: 535

Parution: 01-13-2016

Collection: Library of Renaissance History, n° 9

CLIL theme: 3387 -- HISTOIRE -- Renaissance

EAN: 9782812450754

ISBN: 978-2-8124-5075-4

ISSN: 2262-4309

DOI: 10.15122/isbn.978-2-8124-5077-8

Publisher: Classiques Garnier

Online publication: 02-12-2016

Language: French

Keyword: Bibliothèques, Italie, Milan, vie intellectuelle, 1500-1800, xvie siècle, xviiie siècle, Frédéric Borromée (1564-1631), bibliothèque Ambrosienne (Milan, Italie)