

Des blasons anatomiques à la discipline des filles

Conversions littéraires et trajectoires religieuses d'Eustorg de Beaulieu dans le territoire romand

Publication type: Article from a collective work

Collective work: La Construction internationale de la Réforme et l'espace romand à l'époque de Martin Luther

Author: Sercomanens (Jade)

Abstract: L'Espinglier des filles, (Basel, 1548) is a behavioural manual to prepare reformed girls for their lives as married women. Its author, Eustorg de Beaulieu moved to Geneva from Lyon, then settled in the Pays de Vaud and ended his days in Basel. "Converting" some literary genres as he himself converted to the Reformation, he engaged himself in religious propaganda. His book is intended to be a spiritual guide, but also a biblical reading guide.

Pages: 269 to 284

Collection: Encounters, n° 495

Series: Religious history, n° 3

CLIL theme: 3378 -- HISTOIRE -- Histoire générale et thématique

EAN: 9782406108139

ISBN: 978-2-406-10813-9

ISSN: 2261-1851

DOI: 10.48611/isbn.978-2-406-10813-9.p.0269

Publisher: Classiques Garnier

Online publication: 05-26-2021

Language: French

Keyword: History, Reformation, Lyon, Pays de Vaud, Basel, women, models of behavior

Display online