Abstract: A unique and first-hand account of the course of d'Holbach's campaign, Charles Claude Naigeon's note allows us to thoroughly revise the bibliographical information related to the clandestine publication carried out in conjunction with the bookseller Marc-Michel Rey. A critical edition of this note, amply annotated and supplemented with unpublished documents, was developed to make it a new reference tool in the tradition of the Bibliographie des imprimés du baron d'Holbach by Jeroom Vercruysse.
