

La Représentation de Jérusalem et de la Terre sainte dans les récits de pèlerins européens au XVI^e siècle

Publication type: Book

Scientific editor: Nardone (Jean-Luc)

Abstract: The sixteenth century was pivotal in Europe's relations with the Muslim East. The five testimonials gathered here invite us to discover the itineraries of these travelers, as well as the reasons that prompted them to take up their pens. They also serve as a mirror of the debates and conflicts dividing Europe.
