Les houillères du Centre-Midi de la France (1851-1873)

Publication type: Book

Author: Passaqui (Jean-Philippe)

Abstract: Over the course of the period 1850-1873, the coalmines of the French centre and Midi were no longer limited to the extraction of coal. Students of the Paris École nationale des mines discovered the productive chain which was invented to overcome the pressure created by the exploitation of powerful strata.
