2020, n° 17. Les libertins et l'histoire

Author: Tanigawa (Masako)

Abstract: In the seventeenth century, the history was the subject of religious controversies between Catholics and Protestants. This article aims to clarify Bayle's position, linked with the texts of Jurieu and Arnauld, which discuss 1680s historical events, such as Popish Plot, Affair of the Regale and Toulouse Project. We will see that these controversies led Bayle to develop his reflections on history, politics and morals.
