

Considerazioni su alcune dediche di traduzioni latine di opere greche fatte da Umanisti del Quattrocento

Publication type: Article from a collective work

Collective work: Pratiques latines de la dédicace. Permanence et mutations, de l'Antiquité à la Renaissance

Author: Abbamonte (Giancarlo)

Abstract: In the xvth century, Italian humanists translated some 700 Greek works into Latin almost all of which comprise a dedicatory epistle. This vast corpus puts to the fore the social significance of these translations and also the first historical and literary assessments of the Greek authors that were translated.
