

Roman mystique, mystiques romanesques aux xx^e et xxi^e siècles

Publication type: Collective work

Editors: Auroy (Carole), Préta-de Beaufort (Aude), Wittmann (Jean-Michel)

Abstract: The French novel from the past century is filled with desire aroused by mysticism; this desire simultaneously stretches the novel's boundaries. The way this desire is expressed reflects contemporary forms of the search for meaning, literature's way of looking at its own powers and its confrontation with the limits of language.
