

Sous l'empire du bien

« Bonnes gens » et pacte social (XIII^e-XV^e siècle)

Publication type: Book

Author: Dutour (Thierry)

Abstract: In French-speaking countries between the years 1200 and 1500, a conception of social value based on a demand for trust dominated the organisation of civil life, gave a sense to commitments, and founded the conception of power, in a political practice at the root of the Republican tradition.
